Anu Timmerbacka

Empowering EA's to lead with influence. Measurable results guaranteed.

Helsinki, Uusimaa, Finland

Summary

Most Executive Assistants & Admin Pro's I work with are exceptional — yet often overlooked.

They manage complexity, maintain calm in chaos, and act as the silent stabilisers of the workplace.

But too often, their brilliance flies under the radar. Recognition only comes when something breaks.

Left out of strategic conversations

Stuck in reactivity instead of trusted leadership

Holding back — not from lack of insight, but from fear of how they'll be perceived

They want to influence, lead, and speak with confidence — without pretending to be someone they're not.

That's where I come in — to turn quiet competence into visible leadership.

My work is designed specifically for EAs and Admin Pros who want to lead with clarity, confidence, and calm — and have the results to prove it.

With a clear, measurable promise:

50% boost in communication confidence and executive presence.

You'll walk away with:

- ✓ Confidence to speak clearly — and be remembered
- ✓ Presence that commands respect (without performance)
- ✓ A stronger voice in meetings and strategic decisions
- ✓ Tools to lead hard conversations with calm and clarity
- ✓ Pride in your role — not just for keeping things running, but for driving change

About me:

I'm a communication strategist, coach, and mentor with 15 years of experience helping organisations optimise human-to-human interfaces through collective intelligence — so that people don't just communicate more, but better. With more trust. More clarity. More humanity.

I bring structure and clarity — but also warmth, curiosity, and deep respect for the often-invisible emotional labor that support professionals carry.

Whether sponsored by their companies or investing in their own growth, they leave with something real:

Measurable transformation, lasting presence — and a way of showing up that finally feels like them.

Fun facts?

I'm born & raised in Finland, feel most alive in the forest — and I will dance to any kind of music. Yet Afrobeat wiggles me the best.

Cannot wait to connect and talk to you!
